

FCPS Privacy Policy

We greatly value the trust you place in us. The personal information we collect on our website is strictly limited to the information you provide to us when you (i) make an online contribution, (ii) fill out an online appointment request, or (iv) contact us (e.g., send us an email or call us at a number listed on the site). This information will not be given to or shared with anyone outside of First Choice Pregnancy Services or our service providers unless you expressly allow it, or we believe that it is necessary to comply with the law, protect a person's safety, or address fraud or security issues.

Online Contributions

When you make a donation on our website, the personal information you provide to us is used to process your donation and add you to our donor email list. This information is protected using SSL encryption. Your payment information is securely transmitted to our payment processor in order to process the contribution and it is not stored on our end. We maintain your name, email address, and donation amount in order to comply with accounting requirements, manage receipting and provide your donation history. Online Appointment Requests When you submit an online appointment request with us, we collect your email address and other contact information you provide so we can reply as you request.

Usage Tracking

We track the way people use our website and email to provide you with a better and more engaging experience. Our servers automatically record user information such as Internet Protocol (IP) address, device and browser type, operating system, pages browsed and the time spent on those pages or features, frequency of use, terms searched, hyperlinks clicked on or used, and other use-related statistics. We use this information to provide the features of our website and to analyze (and may engage third parties to analyze) this information to improve and enhance our users' experience, by expanding the features and functionality we provide and tailoring it to our users' needs and preferences. We may also use cookies or similar technologies to analyze trends and track users' movements around our website. You can control use of cookies on most web browsers.

Children's Online Privacy

We never knowingly collect or maintain information on our website from visitors we know are under the age of 16.

Managing Your Private Information

You can manage your online account profile, mailing list subscriptions, and recurring donations by emailing us at fcps.tlc@gmail.com

Changes to this Policy

We may revise this Privacy Policy from time to time. The most current version will always be posted here. By continuing to use our website, and by communicating with us via this site and email, you agree to be bound by the terms of this Privacy Policy.
